

Steve Bizoe - Steve is a retired music educator. He is from Westland, Michigan (near Detroit). Steve started playing trumpet at age four and has been working as a professional musician since the 8th grade. He attended Western Michigan University BM Music Ed and attended the American Band College. Steve plays with The Lake Effect Jazz Big Band, Southwestern Michigan College Brass Band, All in Love rock band, as well as subbing for various groups in the area. Steve is currently the Trumpet instructor for Penn High School and the PHM middle schools. Steve is married to Melanie Bizoe, who is one of the morning show hosts on The Pulse Morning Jump Start on Pulse FM. They have three adult children and two grandsons.