

Steve Whaley

The newest member of the Whistle Pigs, Steve Whaley has been playing in various Michiana bands for over 20 years. Originally from Indianapolis, Steve started playing guitar at the age of 8 and picked up the bass guitar while in high school. He played in a number of area bands in Indy through his college years, as well as through medical school at Indiana University. Steve moved to the South Bend area in 1987, and has been in a number of busy area bands ever since. Some of his other past band projects include The Alter Egos, Blue Fusion, The Grooveside and The Killer Whales.